About HadoopExam.com (HadoopExam Learning Resources)

HadoopExam started in 2012 with a single training & certification for Hadoop. That became so popular successful that for a year we focused only on this one product. Then later HadoopExam entered in another popular tech world AWS Cloud Computing, again there was a huge success. Since, then we have not looked back and continuously our portfolio of training & certification is keep increasing. We have a dedicated inhouse technical team, which does market research and bring up new products. HadoopExam main focus is around below products.

1. Self-Paced Trainings
2. Instructor Led Trainings
3. Certification Preparation Materials
4. eBook & print book publishing

As you are aware, technology is the life blood of every industry and no industry can survive without information technology solutions. Hence, there is continuous innovation towards the technology solutions. 3. Certification Preparation Materials
4. eBook & print book publishing

How does the Revenue share work?

It's simple, 50% sharing for each sell of your product. You will be paid before the end of next month for previous month earning. For example, for Jan-2020 months earning will be paid before 28th of Feb of 2020. Instructors/Authors are responsible for paying their own taxes. Other than any treaty defined between govt of your country and India.

Do I need a certain time commitment for becoming a trainer/author with HadoopExam?

Obviously, no. HadoopExam believe in freedom to work to get best outcome from the Trainer/Author. However, it is always recommended the product you start to prepare i.e., training or books finish faster to remain relevant in the market and get more share from the market.

I live outside India; can I participate in this?

Certainly, HadoopExam is global. Hadoop Exam's 85% learners are outside India. So why not trainer and author. We need expert and who can give their best for preparing learning material.

Can more than one trainer/author (Co-teach/Co-author) create single training or books or certification material?

Yes, you can. With this also, you combined revenue sharing is 50%. This is even better to faster delivery.

Once our course/eBook/Certification preparation material is published. What is the expectation after that?

We want our Learners/Student to be satisfied with your material and learn as much as they have potential. And they may have queries, which you should be able to answer. Since, you are expert. So we don't expect any issue with that.

Can I teach a course or certification on any topic?

Yes, you are free to choose the topic you wish to teach. HadoopExam reserves the right to refuse any topic or content whatsoever.

Who can advertise my published training/eBooks/Certification material?

There are 1000's of learner daily visits the HadoopExam site. Hence, they discover newly launched courses. Other than that, HadoopExam has their own sales & marketing team which advertise new and existing material to reach to market. Other than that, HadoopExam recommend that you also do your best to reach more learners in your network as well i.e., on LinkedIn profile, Facebook profile, Instagram and blog creations etc. Even you can write a blog which HadoopExam team can review and publish on HadoopExam website itself.

I am starting a new training/eBook/Certification preparation material to be published on HadoopExam. What is expected before I start?

We highly recommend before your start. You contact HadoopExam by sending an email to author@hadoopexam.com and share below detail.

Self-Paced Training	1. Share Subject or Topic on which you are preparing training 2. Share Table of Contents & approx. length of the training. 3. How long would you take to finish this training?
eBook	1. Share Subject or Topic on which you are preparing eBook. 2. Share Table of Contents 3. How long would you take to finish this eBook?
Certification Preparation Material	1. Detail about the certification 2. Approx. Number of Questions for the certification exam. 3. Any addition notes for certification exam. Highly recommended.

How am I get paid?

All the global payments are done using PayPal. In case PayPal is not supported in your country, let us know. We will try to work out with different options. And all India payments would be done using Direct Bank Transfer.

What is the recommended length of training videos?

It is recommended training length should be between 3 hrs. to 10 Hrs. Lengthy trainings are not good and also limit each video module to 30 minutes at the max. Ideal is 15 minutes.

What is the recommended length for eBooks?

Your Book must have at least 80 pages of Word Docs excluding table of contents. And should not be more than 400 pages.

How many numbers of questions are recommended for certification exam?

This is all depend on kind of Certification exam.

1. Hands Certification Exam: At least 50 Hands On Lab is recommended and maximum you can provide. You can discuss more on author@hadoopexam.com
2. Multiple Choice Exam: You should have at least 100 MCQ with explanation for right and wrong answer and there is no limit on maximum questions.

Do I need to pay any fee to become an Instructor/Author for HadoopExam?

No, you don't have to pay any fee.

Does HadoopExam retain the rights to my course?

No. You retain all the rights to your content. You simply grant us a license to host and advertise your course and make it available to our Learners. However, once a learner subscribes to a course it remains accessible to him for lifetime. Even, you decide to unpublish that course.

How do I get my course materials on your site?

You are required to complete this form, to get started with your course. And also, get connected with author@hadooexam.com or hadoopexam@gmail.com

I am ready with my contents, how to publish on HadoopExam.com?

Once, you are ready with your contents, please share with hadoopexam@gmail.com on Google Drive. Our publishing team craft it properly and publish on HadoopExam.com and once published you will be notified.

How do I know, when my course/eBook is subscribed a learner?

HadoopExam uses the Google Group membership to give access to specific training. You will be a manager of that Google Group and whenever a new member joins that group, it means he has been given access to learning material and you can monitor that group, as well you would get notification. However, rest assured even you are not able to monitor. Our publishing and technical team put their best on this.

There are many popular Website like Udemy/Pluralsight, why I should choose HadoopExam?

We respect hard work of trainer/Author and don't sell your learning material just in a few bucks like $4 etc. Since, there is a lot of Hard work for each individual training, eBook and certification preparation material. Similarly, we give equal opportunity to each trainer/author whether its new or popular trainer. Other website don't do this, they give priority to existing popular trainer and new trainer would never get a sell without freely distributing its courses. We recommend prices as below.

- Self-Learning Training: $39 to $119
- eBook: $19 to $79
- Certification Preparation Material: $29 to $99

Hence, your revenue potential is quite high.
